

I am opposed to changes in the telephone privacy rules in indiana by the several banking institutions challenging the present rules